CLEAN UP $40,000 IN TOBACCO DEAL

Geary and Buckley Sell Half Million Pounds of Low Grade Tobacco to Factory At 12 1-4c

(Lexington Leader)

One of the biggest tobacco deals made in the Burley district of Kentucky, since the close of the loose leaf market in May has just been consummated by Geary & Buckley, of this city, who announced Saturday that they have sold to the Venable Tobacco Company, of North Carolina, which has a factory and redryer also at Mt. Sterling, Ky., 457,810 pounds of common smoking tobacco at 12 1-4 cents a pound.

The tobacco was bought by Geary & Buckley during the marketing season the past winter and spring at various Central Kentucky sales centers at an average of about 3 1-4 cents, so it will be seen that they will clean up approximately $40,000 on the deal. Before delivery, all of this tobacco, which is scattered about in various counties where it was bought, will be prized, after which it is understood, that it will be transported to Lexington where it will be stored at the plant of the Superior Tobacco Storage Company, on Angliana avenue, where C. W. Bohmer is general manager.

Since it has been definitely ascertained that the acreage of Burley tobacco in Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio and Tennessee is short this year from 40 to 50 per cent, according to well posted tobacco men and that the hot wave and severe drought which have gripped the Burley belt for the last three weeks, just at the time when the plants were getting a "good stand" have blighted to some extent the growing weed in many sections and thereby further lessening the prospects for a normal production, dealers from the Eastern cities and other sections of the country are scouring Kentucky endeavoring to purchase all of last year's tobacco that is available at an advanced price, it became known here Saturday.

This is one of the reasons, local dealers say, that prices of common tobacco have perceptibly stiffened on both the Louisville and Cincinnati markets, as can be verified by recent market quotations of those leaf centers. Dealers and speculators who were farsighted enough to buy the low grades of the weed last season at from two to five cents a pound are now in a position to realize handsomely on their investment, as is evidenced by the sale by Geary & Buckley, it is pointed out by those watching the upward trend of the market.

A prominent tobacco man Saturday stated that he believed that the 1921 crop of tobacco, which is now in the ground, would bring a much better price than last year—in fact, greatly exceed the expectations of the growers, as a result of the conditions referred to. Farmers should now realize he said, that the acreage of this year's tobacco crop has been very materially reduced, which is bound to cut the production and the severe spell of hot, dry weather that the growing plants have passed thru during the period of early growth will have its effect in diminishing the output. Coupled with these conditions, he says, the improvement of the foreign trade situation will increase leaf exports to foreign countries and thereby increase the demand, draw upon the stocks in hand and enhance the value of this year's crop. Instead of discouragement, he says, he sees much promise for the Burley grower who raises anything like a normal crop this year, predicting the price will be advanced over that of last year when the marketing season comes on again unless all signs fail.

WILLSON TO HEAD MEMORIAL DRIVE

His many friends at his old home here are interested in news from Louisville that James C. Willson, Louisville broker, has been appointed to be chairman of the state committee of the memorial fund campaign of the University of Kentucky. The campaign was launched in 1919 to collect $300,000 to erect a memorial building on the campus in honor of the 2,765 Kentucky State men who died in the World War.

Senator Hubble's Horse Wins

Ex-Senator R. L. Hubble was feeling pretty good, thank you Thursday. He had just retired from Latonia, accompanied by W. O. Martin, where they saw the former's good horse, Billy Brush, win a race Wednesday. The fast fellow defeated a good field and won the $1,700 purse by a length or more. He paid $32.65 for $1 and as the Senator had faith in Billy Brush's ability to win that day, the chances are he backed him for a few dollars, at least.—Stanford Journal.

Wallace Reid Plays Double Role in Picture

Many of the admirers of Wallace Reid, Paramount star, will perhaps be disappointed to learn that in his new picture, "Always Audacious," which will be shown at local theatres Tuesday, the popular star wears a home-grown beard! Others will doubtless be just as happy to see Mr. Reid in a real character part—the first in many moons. In this production Mr. Reid plays two roles, wherein he interprets a character and a straight part. In one he is Perry Danton, young San Francisco millionaire, and in the other he is Slim Attucks, a gentleman crook and check forger.

Lebanon Master Commissioner Sells Big Marion Farm

C. C. Boldrick, on Monday sold in the suit of J. L. Collins against G. W. Hughes the latter's farm of 190 acres on the St. Mary's pike a short distance from town. Mr. Collins was the purchaser at $10,000. The farm was bought by Mr. Hughes from Mr. Collins last year. It was formerly owned by Mrs. Edna Purdy and by her sold to Mr. Collins. Commissioner Boldrick also sold in the same case a second lien note of about $8,000 on the farm of Salem George, formerly the W. C. Rogers farm. It was purchased by Mr. Collins for $6,000. The sales were made to satisfy indebtedness against the farm amounting to something over $23,000.—Lebanon Enterprise.

HARDING SUGGESTS POWERS DISARM

Sends Much Talked-of Note To Harvey—Urges Conference in Washington

(By Associated Press)
London, July 11—President Harding's note regarding a disarmament conference was received at the American Embassy yesterday and forwarded to Ambassador Harvey who was in the country. The ambassador called on Premier Lloyd-George today. The British cabinet is understood to have discussed the subject today.

The President's Statement

Washington, July 11—President Harding has taken definite steps looking to a conference in Washington. He also has suggested to the interested nations that there be at the same time a discussion of Pacific and Far East problems, with a view to reaching a common understanding with respect to principles and policies in the Far East.

This announcement was made by the State Department, by direction of the President, in the following statement:

"The President, in view of the far reaching importance of the question of limitation of armaments, has approached with informal but definite inquiry, the group of powers heretofore known as the principal allied associated powers, that is, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan to ascertain whether it would be agreeable to them to take part in a conference on this subject, to be held in Washington at a time to be mutually agreed upon if the proposal is found to be acceptable, formal invitations for such a conference will be issued."

"It is manifest that the question of limitation of armaments has a close relation to Pacific and Far Eastern problems, and the President has suggested that the powers especially interested in these problems, should undertake in connection with this conference, the consideration of all matters bearing upon their solution, with a view to reaching a common understanding with respect to principles and policy in the Far East. This has been communicated to the powers concerned and China has also been invited to take part in the discussion relating to Far Eastern problems."

England Pleased

London, July 11—President Harding's message looking to the calling of a conference on disarmament has been received with the utmost pleasure by Great Britain. Lloyd-George declared in the House of Commons today. He said he spoke for the whole empire. His declaration was cheered. He said China will be treated as an independent in the conference on Pacific affairs.

France Will Come

Paris, July 11—Sheldon Whitehouse, councillor of the American embassy, called at the French Foreign Office today. He talked with the director of political affairs about the possibility of a disarmament conference. Official comment was withheld but unofficial opinions were that France will accept the invitation to the conference.

This Boy Deserves Any- thing Uncle Sam's Got

Sergt. Sam Woolfill, of Newport, who in a single day's battle at Cunel, France, killed thirteen Germans, four of them in hand to hand combat, and captured three others, would be retained from the United States army with the rank of Captain, under a bill introduced in the Senate by Senator Richard P. Ernst, Sergeant Woolfill, it was pointed out by Mr. Ernst, has served 20 years in the army and has won commendations from every officer under whom he served. During the world war he was commissioned a Captain, which rank he held until October 19, 1919, when he was reduced to his former rank because of "termination of emergency." Sergeant Woolfill wears nine medals, including the Congressional Medal of Honor, the French Medal of Honor, the French Croix de Guerre with palm and a Montenégan medal.

300 TICKETS PLEDGED FOR NEXT CHAUTAUQUA

The last numbers on the Chautauqua were presented to two large gatherings Friday. The Davis sisters furnished the musical prelude to both afternoon and evening performances, and rendered several national and popular numbers. They gave their concert on the mellophone and freigel horn, which are two of the most harmoniously blended instruments in the music world. The enthusiastic audience enjoyed their music as much as any other in the Chautauqua circuit and regretted that it was not possible for them to have an afternoon for a concert.

The other number on the program was a lecture-recital given by Wallace Bruce Amsharry. He gave several pleasing numbers that thrilled the audience.

After the prelude given by the Davis Sisters at the evening session, the last number was given by Ralph Bingham, the Fun-Maker Extraordinary. Mr. Bingham showed the audience in his night of fun that a whole evening could be spent in fun without a touch of vulgarity. His program was entirely different than the one given on his last trip to this city, and he kept the crowd in almost constant uproar. He is a great favorite in Richmond.

On the whole his program finished one of the most successful Chautauqua programs that the good people of Richmond have enjoyed for many seasons. All are glad to know that the Legion boys have over 300 tickets subscribed for and this insures the Chautauqua next year. Of course a great many more will have to be sold but the Legionnaires feel this number is sufficient to give them a good start.

DAVE SMITH IN MAGISTRATES' RACE

Dave Smith, one of the best known citizens of the Berea section of the county today formally announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Justice of the peace in the 6th or Glade district. Mr. Smith has a Democratic opposition, and his friends say he is a sure winner for the republican nomination. He is a hustling, progressive business man and farmer and his friends say will make good in the office he is seeking. He was in town Monday accompanied by E. F. Feese, who is a candidate for constable in the same district and has no opposition from anyone. Mr. Feese moved from Adair county to Madison not long ago and has already made good in his new home.

To the Voters of the City of Richmond

I am for getting back to normalcy; safe and sane conditions. I am for lowering the tax rate to relieve the taxpayer of some of this enormous burden of taxation placed upon him.

I am for lowering property values to what it should be under normal conditions.

I am for strict economy in every department of the city government.

I am for giving every man a square deal, no matter what his race, color or previous occupation. I refer you to my record as Mayor from 1910 to 1918, and if nominated and elected I pledge my best endeavors to have these reforms carried out and make the city a good and efficient Mayor.

I solicit your vote and support. Respectfully yours, SAM'L RICE.

TO DRAW PLACES ON BALLOT TUESDAY

Candidates For County Offices To Meet At Clerks' Office At 2 P. M.—Interest Grows

Much interest is being manifested in the meeting of the county candidates Tuesday at 2 p. m. to draw for their positions on the primary ballot.

The meeting will be held in the office of County Clerk J. W. Maupin. Each candidate who is not present will be represented by some friend or impartial spectator who will draw his name from a hat or box with the names of each candidate on a slip of paper. The first one drawn out gets first place on the ballot. Some candidates think it quite an advantage to have the top position on the ballot.

Much interest is being manifested in the local races with the primary on August 6th, not quite a month ahead. The candidates and their friends are working hard. While interest is increasing every day, so far nothing has been heard to disturb the friendly relations of the candidates, and it is being predicted that no matter who wins the democratic nominations, the entire party is going to be solidly behind them for the final election as never before.

The republicans have no contests for the county offices since for Tax Commissioner. It is generally reported that he and Mr. Engle "got together" in this race, Taylor agreeing to appoint Engle to a place under him in he wins the final election and to pay him $1,500 a year salary.

TWO MORE NICE HOME SALES MADE

That hustling real estate firm the Freeman Realty Company, put over two good sales of local property last week. The demand for good homes in Richmond is being manifest, right along.

The first sale made was that of the pretty new bungalow on Oak street, sold for J. T. Reeves to Mrs. P. B. Broadus. The price for this property was not made public, but it is a splendid little home. Mrs. Broadus will move there soon, it is understood, to make her home.

On Saturday this firm sold for Mrs. L. A. Weaver her home on Big Hill avenue to Boyd Sandlin for $2,775. This is a very attractive little home and Mr. Sandlin got a bargain.

On next Saturday, the same firm plans to offer the place of L. W. Barnett on Walnut street. These boys are planning public sales for every Saturday, with sometime two or three sales the same day. They are featuring these Saturday sales and the buying public find they can get some real bargains.

She Swallowed Five Spoons

Hokinsville, Ky., July 11—Mrs. Rosie Tucker Cowan, 30 years old, Kirmansville, Todd county, a patient in Western State Hospital for the Insane, finished five meals in the last several months by swallowing a spoon, an operation revealed today. Mrs. Cowan has been in the hospital a year. She told attendants several times that she had swallowed a spoon, and each time an examination failed to reveal a laceration of the throat. A pain in her stomach developed, and an X-ray examination revealed the objects. She will probably recover.

Lexington, Ky., July 11—Nine meetings will be held in the burley belt this week in the interest of the proposed Co-operative Tobacco Marketing Association. It was announced at the headquarters of the temporary organization here today.

Franklin county growers, under the leadership of Bedford Macklin, member of the organization committee, and county chairman, will start its campaign for members Thursday. An organization was completed last week.

B. A. Thomas, Shelby county, has arranged a meeting in his district for Saturday afternoon. He reports that his county, which produces 10,000,000 pounds of burley tobacco, has pledged about 25 per cent of this amount to the Co-operative Association.

Other meetings which will be held this week are:

Monday, Owingsville and Stanford; Wednesday, Lebanon; Friday, Lawrenceburg; Saturday, Harrodsburg, Winchester, and Bedford.

The meeting of tobacco growers which was to have been held at Mt. Sterling Saturday afternoon was postponed on account of the inability of the local committee in Montgomery county to make proper arrangements for the gathering.

FIVE KILLED WHEN PLANE HITS CARS

Atmidsville, W. Va., July 11—Five persons are known to be dead and approximately forty injured at Langin flying field when a Martin bombing plane crashed into a group of automobiles parked on the ground late Sunday. An explosion followed, setting fire to the machines. The dead were all spectators, Lieutenant C. R. McIver, pilot, and Lieutenant T. H. Dutton, assistant pilot, were rescued by Carl Miller coach of Bethany College.

The dead are: Carl Pettit, Fred Edge, Mrs. George Long, 65 years old, Moundsville, Ralph Hartzell and Leo Moskill, 9 years old, Moundsville.

Lieutenants McIver and Dutton were taking off in the plane from Langin field, starting from the south side of the field, with the Ohio river on their left. They have risen about thirty feet, according to the reports, when the plane swung sharply to the left and seemed about to hit a hangar. Sixteen automobiles burned, and the dead, in most instances, were trapped in the machines. Both tanks of the aircraft exploded, hurling the burning fuel over the cars and spectators for several yards away.

Burnett was convicted twice on the charge of carrying concealed weapons, the first conviction being in Lee county, and the second in Estill county. He received one year on each conviction. Recently he instituted proceedings for his release from the reformatory on the ground that the judgment of the Estill circuit court was void because it was based on a void judgment. Judge Stout refused to order his release.

What Are County Offices For?

(Elizabethown News)
Allie Sanders tells the Lancaster Record that Garrard county has the most accommodating candidates it has ever been his pleasure to see. He had occasion to break part of his mower, a few days ago, and was unable to find the desired piece in any of the implement stores in that city. He mentioned the fact to the various candidates and asked for assistance. The result has been that his back yard now is a veritable junk pile, as every single candidate in the county has brought him pieces of mowers that a junk dealer would look upon with envious eyes. — Richmond Daily Register.

The above, which is typical of a condition that exists to a more or less degree in every county in the state, suggests the question contained in the caption of this article: "What are our county officers for?" Are they to be selected because they are merely "clever fellows" or will they be chosen with view of securing honest and efficient service to the county?

The fault for this unhappy condition rests not so much with the candidates as with the people themselves. It is they who set the standards, and fix the requirements, and the candidates very naturally try to meet those standards and requirements.

If Bill Jones, of Glendale precinct, is more concerned in having a good handshake, a man who gives him a bad cigar or perhaps helps him to hoe a row of potatoes, as County Judge or County Clerk or Sheriff than a man who is equipped both in character and training, to discharge capably the duties of these offices, then cheap methods will be employed to get Bill Jones' vote. The probabilities are that before the campaign is over he'll get as much as a half a box of cigars, and several rows of potatoes hoed, but if the Bill Jones type controls the county primary that is all he will get for the next four years. The affairs of his county will be miserably mismanaged. The county officials whom he has helped to install will be a lot of incompetents far more devoted to a continuation of the demagogic practices that won them success in elections before than in rendering fearless and conscientious public service.

The result is that Bill Jones and those of his ilk have inflicted a wrong upon all the citizens of the county. They have succeeded in installing into power a set of men who are not capable of looking after the county's best interests.

How much better would it be if in the selection of county officials we pick out the best man for every office; the man whose training and character insured faithful and efficient public service.

No railroad company would choose for its president a man because he was a "hail fellow well met." No bank wants a cashier merely because he knows how to shake hands. No client hires a lawyer to return the gift of a cigar. Those men are selected on a business basis, with a view of getting the best possible returns to those by whom they are employed, and yet for the management of the affairs of the county—a corporation whose moneyed assets are far into the millions and in whose administration rests the prosperity, progress and safety of each of its citizens—we frequently select a man who has nothing more to commend him than a "hail shake" of the hand.

The fault we repeat, is more with the people than the politicians. Whenever they determine in their own minds to apply strictly the Jeffersonian standards of honesty and capability to every branch of public service, then will public service begin to approach private business in its progress and efficiency.

The Danville Advocate says that Ed. V. Wilson, well-known internal revenue expert, is about to go to the prohibition enforcement office at a large salary.

Mrs. James H. Baughman, wife of a well known farmer of the Perryville section of Boyle county, died there last week. She was about 70 years old and is survived by her husband and several children.

Sun's Rays Fired Bed and Burned Child To Death

Benwood, W. Va., July 11.—The rays of the afternoon sun, focused on a bed through a flaw in a window pane, set the bed, clothing afire, and resulted in the death of Maggie Perkovich, a seven-months-old babe. The house was destroyed by the flames.

Mrs. Perkovich, the child's mother, made many attempts to rescue her daughter, but each time was driven back by the flames and smoke. It finally became necessary for neighbors to carry the frantic woman away, to prevent her sacrificing her life in a useless effort to save her child.

The world goes whither it is led!

THE WHOLE DESTINY of any people depends upon the quality of its leadership. The world goes only where it is led.

Prussia went war mad because she was led by militaristic apostles of ruthless force. Russia went Bolshevik because her leadership was ignorant and fanatical.

America has become the world's greatest democracy because her early leaders were Christian statesmen trained in Christian colleges. She will make further progress only in so far as that leadership holds the helm.

We May Go Wrong

America may yet go wrong. Already the Prussian advocates have invaded our schools. Even now the mutterings of radicals sound ominous. Unless leaders arise who swear allegiance to Christian principles we may yet end in confusion.

Class consciousness and all that it involves is created and fostered by irresponsible leaders and agitators with half-baked social ideas. It breeds strikes, industrial war, sabotage, red revolution.

A trained mind with a Christian conscience never yet led the world astray. And the world would never go astray if there were a sufficiency of such leaders.

Out of the Christian College

The Christian college is the only institution which even claims to produce leaders with both trained mind and Christian heart. It is, therefore, fundamental in American life.

Its influence can give stability to the turbulent world. Its graduates will direct human activities into channels of peace. It will banish the Bolshevik from American life. It means stability, law and order. It means constitutional government and civil liberty.

Miss Dolly Pickels, of Baltimore, who has been the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Pickels, is the guest of Miss Eugenia Herrington, at Boonesboro beach.

Mrs. John Jones and family have returned to Huntington, W. Va., after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Arnold on High street.

Mrs. W. W. Williamson has arrived from Fondulac, Wisconsin, for a visit to her mother, Mrs. J. C. Lackey, on Woodland avenue.

Miss Amelia Kavanagh is quite ill at the home of her niece, Mrs. Robert Thorpe.

Miss Mary Ballard is ill with typhoid fever at the Good Samaritan hospital in Lexington. Her many friends in Richmond hope to hear of her speedy recovery.

Mrs. S. W. Fife and children are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Chadwick, in Crab Orchard.

Dr. E. H. Ellis was called to Cincinnati Sunday by the death of his sister, Mrs. James Haywood.

Mrs. Julia West is convalescent from a several days' serious illness.

DRUGGIST AFFIRMS HE PUT IT TO TEST

Williamstown Man Says In His Judgment Tanlac Is Best Medicine In World.

"I ought to know something about medicine as I was a druggist for 36 years and I give it as my deliberate judgment Tanlac is the best medicine in the world today for stomach trouble," said William C. Johnson, Williams-town, Ky.

"I have given Tanlac a personal test and know what it will do. My stomach trouble started when I was laid up in the hospital for fourteen weeks as a result of an accident. Lack of exercise and fresh air got the best of me and I got to the point where everything I ate disagreed with me. I had to be propped up in bed in order to get my breath and got very little sleep at night."

"I had the best advice and treatment money could buy, but got no relief until about a month ago when I began taking Tanlac. This medicine has helped me in every way. My digestion has been so remarkably improved that I can now enjoy my food and am getting stronger all the time. Tanlac did more for me than relieve my indigestion, for since it has built up my stomach an open wound, which wouldn't heal before, has entirely closed up. I am willing to stake my reputation on the statement that Tanlac is a medicine of unusual merit, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to people who have stomach trouble and are run down."

Tanlac is sold in Richmond by Stockton and Son.

funeral of Mrs. Howell's mother, Mrs. James Crawford.

Miss Margaret Lucille Dunn was over from Lexington for a few days stay with her father, Mr. Mason Dunn. Mrs. Dunn is improving under the care of a specialist, her many friends will be glad to know.

HOW MANY OBJECTS IN THIS PICTURE START WITH THE LETTER "C"

The picture above contains a number of objects beginning with the letter "C". Just take a good look at the picture. There are all kinds of things that begin with the letter "C". Like cows, cars, canals, etc. Nothing is hidden; you don't have to go on the picture upside down. It really isn't a puzzle at all, for all the objects have been made perfectly plain with no attempt to disguise or hide them. None are so small that the poorest eyesight can't find them. It is a test of skill. Your ability to find "C-words" determines the prize you win. Right after the dishes are done this evening, gather all the members of your family together, give each one of them a pencil and sheet of paper—and see who can find the most "C-words". We know you will enjoy it, for everyone loves a puzzle.

Lucky? Why, man, I'm the Human Horseshoe!

I CERTAINLY was born.
UNDER A lucky star.
FOR INSTANCE the time,
I HOOKED my bonds.
TO PLAY the market.
ON A sure thing tip.
AND BOUGHT Slippery Ellum.
AT SEVENTY-TWO.
FOR A healthy rise.
AND FOR seven days.
I HUGGED the ticker.
AND COULDN'T sleep.
ONCE IT jumped two points.
AND I walked on air.
AND THAT very day.
I SAW a sign.
IN A cigar stand.
THAT SAID "Satisfy."
IT GAVE me a hunch.
TO BE satisfied.
WITH WHAT I'd got.
AND NOT hog the deal.
SO I phoned my broker.
TO SELL me out.
AND THE very next day.
SLIPPERY ELLUM slipped.
TO FIFTY-FIVE.
SO NOW I've gotten.
BACK my bonds.
AND BABY'S got new shoes.
AND NOW my regular smokes.
ARE THE cigarettes.
THAT "SATISFY."

WHENEVER you get that "Satisfy" hunch, play it. Steer straight for the nearest stand and invest in Chesterfield. This combination of fine Turkish tobacco, blended with Burley and other Domestic leaf, will give you a new measure of cigarette enjoyment. You're in luck from that day on.

METHODISTS MEET BAPTISTS WEDNESDAY

The Methodists are to play again Wednesday with the Baptists as their opponents in the local Church League. No game is scheduled for Tuesday. It was first planned to play this game between the Methodists and Baptists Tuesday but it was postponed until Wednesday so as to give the Second streeters a day of rest. The Baptist team now holds second place and has developed a strong nine. The only bad habit of this team is having off days when they look to be 2,000 feet below sea level. They have been playing high class ball lately and will upset the dope if they have an off day. The Methodists seem to have improved more rapidly than any other team and a tough game is expected for Wednesday.

MRS. FAULCONER WEEPS AT BOARD MEETING

Lexington, Ky., July 11—Mrs. Nannie G. Faulconer, County School Superintendent, who has been under constant fire since the new County Board of Education took office in March, wept at a meeting of the board under fire of hot questions and taunts after she presented a bill to Dr. Gilbert Bailey, chairman, for upkeep of her automobile. Under the old board's regime, she said, her expenses were paid.

Dr. Bailey asked Mrs. Faulconer if her expenses were unlimited. Numerous questions were fired at her while she was in tears. Dr. Bailey began to read a number of bills. The superintendent started talking to another member while the chairman was reading.

"You are out of order," the chairman exclaimed.

"I am not," she retorted. "You are, and as chairman of this meeting, it is my duty to keep order."

"Keep it then," said Mrs. Faulconer. She snapped her finger at him and left the room, weeping, thus bringing an end to the dispute.

The board has declared that the finances have been kept poorly, and Henry James, State Inspector and Examiner, has made an audit of the books for the board. Extravagance and carelessness in keeping the records has been charged.

Prof. George Baker, of the University of Kentucky, recently was elected to succeed Mrs. Faulconer at the end of her term, acting in an "advisory" capacity until her term expires, and the board and Superintendent have been constantly at "odds." Mrs. Faulconer charging that an attempt was made to induce her to quit.

RICHMOND NINE

DEFEATS WACO

A picked team from Richmond journeyed to Waco Saturday where they defeated a nine from that place by a score of 12 to 10. The local boys, although out hit, managed to win by lancing hits and playing masterly ball on the green. Isaacs pitched a nice game for the locals and pulled Richmond through in fine style. He held the Waco attack under control until the ninth when it was too late for them to be dangerous, although they did give our boys a shake in the final round.

Charley Rogers led the Richmondites at handling the willow with two triples, a double and a single in five times up. He tried to stretch his two-bagger into a triple but died in the attempt. Manpin certainly chose the right man for the clean-up position. Keith and Barnett also smacked the pill hard.

Covington, the star Waco infielder, who plays the keystone position, lost one in the bushes in right-center field and circled the bases three times before the horse hide could be found. Th veteran, George Ginter, played a stellar game for the Waco team and will probably wear a uniform of the coming town team that is to be organized in this city. The local team got to Metcalf, a southpaw, and won in the early innings.

The local team is improving rapidly and will soon be ready to book games with teams from the surrounding towns. CHARGED WITH SLAYING HIS WIFE —Charged with the murder of his wife, Mrs. Mattie Lee Smith Shelburne, 28 years old, who it was given out June 15, was dragged a mile by a mule to her death A. D. Shelburne, 48, a farmer, living between Taylorville and Waterford three and one half miles from here, was arrested Saturday afternoon by Sheriff J. B. Thomas and Deputy Sheriff W. E. Goodwin and taken to the Jefferson county jail for safe-keeping. Excitement ran high over the arrest.

Taylorville, Ky., July 11

When Mrs. Shelburne was found a little more than three weeks ago, her foot caught in the stirrup and hanging head downward, her skull fractured and a mass of bruises and lacerations above the shoulders, her husband said the mule had run away and the woman's brains practically had been beaten out against the stones in a field over which the mule ran.

Saturday the woman's brothers J. H. and J. W. Smith, and a brother-in-law, Oscar Quire, swore to the warrant charging her husband really had beaten her to death and told the runaway story to hide the crime.

The woman was Shelburne's third wife. She had a child a few months old. Shelburne's first wife was divorced and remarried and his second wife died. He has two grown daughters.

Shelburne is one of the largest land-owners in this county.

The Right Way Saves Annoyance

There are two ways to call a telephone number.

The wrong way is to call from memory; to "take a chance," to trust to luck that your memory doesn't play a trick on you, with the fickle figures in a telephone number.

The right way is to consult the Telephone Directory before calling and make sure you have the right number.

The right way saves annoyance to yourself and to the persons you might have called by mistake. It helps build up a higher grade of service for yourself and others. It eliminates useless calls which hamper service.
